

Abstract: I will discuss some observations regarding the topology of the space of A-invariant probability measures on the space of lattices (A being the diagonal group in SL_n). In particular, I will explain a construction of Cassels giving rise to a sequence of A-invariant ergodic probability measures (supported on compact A-orbits) which converge to the zero measure (i.e. full escape of mass).