

Abstract

The mixed Littlewood conjecture concerns Diophantine approximation in the product of real and p -adic numbers. In this talk we explore some extensions of this conjecture using dynamics on S -arithmetic spaces. In particular, we would be interested in its inhomogeneous version and logarithmic improvements. This is a joint work with Pankaj Vishe.